His Excellency, the Assistant High Commissioner of Bangladesh excited by the Royal Bengal Airline vision.

Leicester welcomed the Royal Bengal Airline team on the 4th December as the company promotional tour continued. His Excellency, the Assistant High Commissioner of the people's republic of Bangladesh, Mr. Khondakar Mostan Hussain attended as the chief guest and listened attentively as the RBA team introduced their company to him and other Bengali community leaders. After an informative presentation, guests had the opportunity to ask questions about the RBA venture and to join the growing family of Royal Bengal airline tigers. Mohammed Ziaul Quamar, a RBA director and a successful business man, said "The RBA team has taken such a great responsibility and we will not disappoint, the community must trust the team and have confidence that the Bengali communities around the world will be celebrating a new airline very soon".

As well as his Excellency, community leaders such as the ex councillor and ex deputy leader of tower hamlets council, Jan Alam, the chair of the Bangladesh business forum, Faizur Rahman Choudhury MBE, the chairman of Nabigonj Education trust, Shah Abid Ali, community worker, Mr M.A Shahid, the XL radio Brimingham presenter G.M. Choudhury Juboraj and Apsana Ahmed a successful academic and college lecturer all gave inspiring speeches about the RBA project. The event was hosted by Fokrul Hussain and the Speakers included the RBA managing director Mohammed Shalim Rahman, founder directors Mizanur Rahman and Shahidul Islam, and the energetic and young directors Abdul Shukur Khalisadar and Forhad Hussain. Other RBA directors present at the seminar were Motahir Miah, Maruk Miah and Maruf Miah. Maruf Miah is a successful business entrepreneur in the Midlands and organised the event and said "I am proud to be an owner of an international airline and be a part of a growing team trying to do something positive for our community".

His Excellency, the assistant high commissioner of Bangladesh Mr Khandakor Mostan Hussain was highly impressed with the company and vibrant RBA team, "I wish them all the best, make us proud, launch Royal Bengal Airline. Our community in the UK and across the globe needs an international airline and this young and enthusiastic team can do this". The RBA team announced that the RBA Offices around the world will have the same office layout and architectural designs. The Royal Bengal Airline team hopes to be moving very soon into its new head offices in the heart of the Bangladeshi community in Bangla Town.
