The Royal Bengal Airline UK tour moves to Oldham and Manchester where the locations of new global offices are announced.

The Royal Bengal Airline team held pre seminars in Oldham, Manchester and Chester last weekend as the company's journey continues and the team grows from strength to strength. These meetings were used to announce the opening of their global offices.

Royal Bengal Airline informed the Bengali community in the north of its plans and announced that it has long term objectives to develop a route from Manchester to Dhaka as well as its initial routes from London to Dhaka and Birmingham to Dhaka. Plans for the new RBA London office were on display and the focused audiences were told of the series of aircrafts that the company will be acquiring for operation.

Community leaders and local business men such as Mizanur Rahman (Mizan), Abdul Monan (Monaf), Hafizur Rahman, Surabur Rahman, Musashid Hussain, Abdus Shohid, Gulam Ahmed, Ronok Chowdhury, Syed Usman Ali were all at the initial meetings.

The young RBA director Abdul Shukur Khalisadar introduced his company as "Revolutionary", "Bold" and "Ambitious" (RBA) and encouraged the communities up north to have faith in this UK based company (R B Airline UK Ltd) to successfully launch an airline and satisfy the Bengali communities' needs for a better travelling experience to Bangladesh. Nasir Khan, another RBA director said "we have opened up several offices in Bangladesh including a brand new office on Airport Road in Sylhet".

The Sylhet office is operational at Ali Bhaban, Ground and First Floor, 10 Torongo, Lichu Bagan, Majumdari, Airport Road, Sylhet. The locations of other Bangladesh offices where announced as follows:
