High Commissioner pledges his support to The Royal Bengal Airline

Senior management of Royal Bengal Airline, the first British Bangladeshi airline, recently visited the High commissioner of the peoples republic of Bangladesh at his consulate in South Kensington, West London, UK. His Excellency Mr. Sabihuddin Ahmed and his colleagues were informed of the history and progress of Royal Bengal Airline. The High commissioner expressed his interest and pledged his support for the project and welcomed Royal Bengal airline to Bangladesh " I wish Royal Bengal airline, good luck and all the success in the future". He also welcomed the millions of investment that RBA will bring into Bangladesh.

A few days later, senior managers visited Germany to finalise delivery dates of two of their ten acquired aircraft for their airline passenger service to be launched at the end of this year. Logo designs on the aircraft were also discussed and finalized. Director Forhad Hussain said "these are exciting times for the Royal Bengal airline team, we have made so much progress since our launch seminar back in September".
